

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Matters of General Interest Gathered by Our Reporters.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL ITEMS

What Has Happened and What Is Going to Happen Told in Short Paragraphs So That "He Who Runs May Read" It in The Sun.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Col. J. J. Barr and wife of Micanopy were visitors to the city Monday.

A. U. Hilleary of Micanopy was a prominent visitor to Gainesville Monday.

Plank's Chili Tonic is guaranteed to cure chills, fever, colds and lagrippe. Price 25 cents.

J. A. Maultsby, manager of the Campville Brick Co., was among the visitors to the county capital Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Jones are among the large number of Gainesville people now sojourning at Daytona Beach.

J. T. Jones, the clever trucker and soliciting agent of Rocky Point, was among the visitors to the city yesterday.

C. W. Wells, one of the genial and enterprising citizens of Alachua, was greeting his Gainesville friends yesterday.

Tom Burford, who has been absent for the past few weeks to points in Georgia, returned to his home here yesterday.

W. A. Snowden, one of the enterprising citizens of the Micanopy section, was among the visitors to Gainesville yesterday.

Walter Kraber of Campville, one of the employees of the Campville Brick Co., was transacting business in Gainesville yesterday.

Miss Bessie McLain, an accomplished young lady of Candler, is in the city, a guest of the family of H. C. Roth of North Gainesville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Jernigan, who have been spending the past few days with friends at Archer, returned to their home in this city yesterday.

L. M. Taylor, who has been employed in the city for the past two years, left yesterday for Jacksonville, which place he will make his future home.

Jesse E. Burts, formerly city editor of The Sun, departed yesterday for Ocala, where he goes to spend a few days on business and pleasure combined.

Mrs. L. T. Roux and daughter, Miss Mamie, have returned from Williston, where they have been for the past two weeks on a visit to relatives and friends.

G. T. Kennard, the liveryman of Newberry, was a visitor to Gainesville yesterday. He reports business thriving in the mining town, and money plentiful.

Miss Estelle Beal has returned to her desk in the office of the clerk of the circuit court, after a pleasant visit of a week to Miss Minnie Shaw at Alachua.

Mrs. G. L. Thompson and baby departed yesterday for Pine Hurst, Ga., where they will spend several weeks at their old home, as guests of the former's mother.

Mrs. W. L. LeGrande and children, Willa and Olin, departed Saturday for Sparks, Ga., where they will spend the remainder of the summer visiting the former's parents.

Contractor S. H. Dempsey has about completed the two-story cottage being erected for Mrs. H. C. Denton. It will be one of the most modern cottages in that section of the city.

O. F. Baldwin, who has been employed here for some time by the Eddins Manufacturing Co., departed yesterday for his old home at Albany, Ga., where he will in future reside.

B. F. Matthews, another of those substantial farmers who not only raises vegetables, but plenty of the good things to eat in a staple way, was a visitor to Gainesville yesterday.

W. D. Bobbitt of Micanopy was a visitor to Gainesville yesterday. He was one of the witnesses in the case of Briggs & Heselton vs. Ella Prator, which was argued before Referee Rivers.

J. G. Harrold and wife departed yesterday for Worthington Springs, where they will spend the next few days. From there they will proceed to Pablo, where they will also spend a short while.

T. K. Godbey, the nurseryman and potato grower of Waldo, was a visitor to the University City yesterday. He has a large acreage in sweet potatoes and expects to realize handsomely from this product.

The contractors have just completed for B. F. Hampton a neat and commodious cottage on East Seminary street. This section of the city is fast building up, as it is one of the best locations in the city.

D. L. Williams, one of the enterprising farmers who resides about eight miles west of the city, brought to the market on Saturday a load of new potatoes. They were large and fancy tubers and found a ready sale.

Alex Oliver departed Sunday for Indian Springs, Ga., where he will spend some time in the hope that the springs will prove beneficial to his health. From there he will visit Lithia Springs before returning.

E. C. McMahan returned yesterday to Alachua, where he is employed on the brick work of the Alachua Bank building. The structure is one story but will have two rooms, and will be a credit to the town when finished.

H. A. Fisher and son, E. C., who have been employed by the Florida Land Company at Montbrook for the past several weeks, returned to their home in this city yesterday, having completed their contract at that point.

G. A. Gleason and sons, George and Fred, were visitors to the city yesterday. They have recently organized a baseball club at Rocky Point and propose at some distant date to come in and give the Gainesville boys a game.

B. F. Duke, formerly of this city but who is now engaged in business at Dunnellon, was a visitor to relatives here yesterday. He and his wife are also paying a visit to the latter's father, Capt. J. A. Tucker of Rochelle.

Miss Mary Strobhar of Montgomery, Ala., is the charming guest of Miss Julia Lund, en route home from a visit to South Florida. Miss Strobhar is very popular here and is having a delightful time.—Times-Union, 12th.

Casper S. Peeler, together with Misses Lucile and Annie Peeler, have returned from Windsor, where they have been on a visit to the family of Chas. Spivey and incidentally taking in the church entertainment at that place.

The case of Briggs & Heselton vs. Ella Prator, as administratrix, was argued Monday before Referee J. M. Rivers as referee. The case took up the greater part of the day and a large number of witnesses were summoned here to testify.

G. B. Crawford, formerly of this city but now of Green Cove Springs, was in town Monday, renewing old acquaintances. His friends are glad to see him looking so well. Mr. Crawford is delighted with his new home and speaks in high praise of the town and people.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Pons of Gainesville, accompanied by their daughter and Miss Sykes, also of Gainesville, arrived in the city last evening and are pleasantly located at the Duval. They had Miss Grace Talbot of Crawfordville, Ind., as their guest at dinner last evening.—Times-Union, 13th.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

Mrs. Jessie Nelson of Williston is in the city, the guest of the family of F. S. Curl.

Mrs. Willis and two children of Paradise were shopping in the city yesterday.

Hague Strickland, one of the progressive farmers of Clark, was among the visitors to the city yesterday.

W. E. Bruce left yesterday for points in South Florida, where he will be gone for the next several days.

Green Chaires, who is now engaged in the turpentine business at Bell, is visiting relatives and friends in the city.

J. R. Smith, one of the substantial farmers of the Trenton section, was among the visitors to the county capital yesterday.

Harry Parker, a former resident of this section but now of Tifton, Ga., is in the city renewing his many acquaintances.

Miss Tirzah Witherspoon departed yesterday for Wacahoota, where she will spend several days with her cousin, Miss Smith.

S. T. Fleming, member of the firm of Fleming & Son, merchants of Archer, was transacting business in Gainesville yesterday.

John Drummond, the efficient justice of the peace for the Trenton district, is in the city renewing acquaintances with his old friends.

G. Dias of Oxford, Ga., has arrived and will make this city his future home. He is a fine musician and will be a valuable acquisition to the band.

County Judge Mason has issued marriage license to G. W. Miller and Miss Ruth Mikell, both prominent young people of the Trenton section.

M. I. Jones, who has been absent for the past several days to points in the western part of the county on business, has returned to his home in this city.

C. F. Goodman and wife, who have been absent from the city for the past several weeks visiting friends and relatives in Massey, Ga., have returned to the city.

Misses Mamie and Maggie Robinson, who have been attending the summer normal in this city for the past few weeks, left yesterday for their home at Melrose.

Mrs. G. W. Brabham and children and J. M. Spivey, who have been absent for the past week on a visit to relatives at Melrose, returned to their home in this city yesterday.

Mrs. J. A. Tucker of Rochelle was among the visitors to the city yesterday. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. B. F. Duke of Dunnellon, who is visiting her mother.

F. E. Cillon of Hague was a visitor to Gainesville Tuesday. He will join the party of sportsmen who will leave this week for the shores of the old Suwannee, and anticipates a pleasant trip.

T. E. McDonald of Rocky Point and little daughter, Mabel, were visitors to the city yesterday. The latter will spend some time in the city as the guest of her grandmother, Mrs. L. R. Wimberly.

Mrs. A. E. Colson and little daughter, Dot, who have been in the city for the past several days on a visit to her brothers, R. S. and John Bennett, returned to their home at Trenton yesterday.

Geo. L. Taylor, the enterprising manager of the Gainesville Peach Orchard Co., who own one of the largest orchards in the State at Palmer, was meeting his large number of Gainesville friends yesterday.

Mrs. M. J. Patterson will leave today for her vacation for the remainder of the heated term. While away she will visit Athens, later Indianapolis, and wind up the season on a visit to her grandson in Ohio.

C. W. Bauknight, one of the pioneer merchants of Archer, was transacting business in Gainesville yesterday. He reports that section as being visited by good rains daily, which are proving a blessing to the farmers of that community.

Geo. Estabrook of this city is now confined to the hospital in Waycross, where he went to have a surgical operation performed. He expects to recover sufficiently within the next four or five weeks to again return to his home in this city.

J. L. Crews, one of the substantial farmers of Rocky Hammock, was a visitor to the city yesterday. Although he resides in Levy county his principal business is transacted at this point, which he says is the best inland city in the State.

Ray Witherspoon, who is in the employ of the A. C. L., and has been stationed at Palatka for some time, was in the city yesterday on a visit to his mother. He has just been transferred to High Springs and left in the afternoon for that point.

W. A. Strickland of Hague was in the city yesterday for the purpose of making preparations for an extended hunting and fishing trip which he and a party propose to take upon the banks of the famous old Suwannee river. They will be absent about two weeks and expect to have an enjoyable trip.

W. H. Guns, the moulder employed by the Gainesville Foundry and Machine Works who had the misfortune to get something in his eye about two weeks since and who was compelled to visit a specialist in Jacksonville, writes friends in the city that he is recovering his sight and hopes to be able to return within a short while.

From Thursday's Daily Sun:

Mrs. H. Maddox of Archer was among the shoppers who paid Gainesville a visit yesterday.

F. D. Irwin, the merchant and wood contractor of Fairbanks, was among the visitors to the city yesterday.

Hardy Thomas, one of the enterprising farmers of the Montecocha section, was a visitor to the city Monday.

S. Frei, the genial proprietor of the Magnolia Hotel at Archer, was transacting business in the city yesterday.

Bicycle work of all kinds. Baby carriages repaired and re-tired. All work guaranteed. Baker Cycle Co.

J. R. Smith, one of the substantial farmers of the Trenton section, is among the business visitors to the city.

Misses Ethel and Mozelle Durst have returned from Newberry, where they have been visiting their friend, Miss Clem Pickett.

Ed Douglass and Mary Gaines, Ned Sharpe and Mary Hopkins were yesterday licensed to wed by County Judge Mason.

Mrs. Chas. Helfreich departed yesterday for Worthington Springs, and will spend the next several days at that popular resort.

Six second-hand buggies and five wagons—all worked over and painted to look as new—for sale cheap. Apply to Benson & Son.

Mrs. Mary Smith, Solomon and Joe Smith of Francis, Fla., are in the city, guests of the family of J. M. Manning, East Gainesville.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Haymans, a fine boy, on Wednesday morning. Mother and child are both reported as doing nicely.

Congressman Frank Clark and son, Frank, Jr., departed yesterday for Washington City, where they will be absent for several weeks.

Col. W. H. Palmer, who has been absent for the past several weeks to points in Michigan, returned to his home in this city yesterday.

Mrs. Mabel Kellar and children departed yesterday for Melrose, where they will spend several days as guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Yearwood.

Two of the best bred and most beautifully marked fox terrier pups ever seen in Florida for sale. Call on or address Elmer W. McCreary, Gainesville, Fla.

Bicycles and guns repaired. All work receives prompt and careful attention. Bicycle sundries of all kinds. Baker Cycle Co., successors to Gainesville Cycle Co.

Miss Ella Smith of Newberry is in the city on a visit to the family of W. W. Colson, East Gainesville. She holds a lucrative position in the drug store of E. F. Vidal at Newberry.

Mrs. Sarah Patterson, mother of Mrs. Pinkoson, who has been confined to her room with sickness for the past few days, is rapidly improving, much to the delight of her many friends.

E. W. Millican, the naval stores producer of Millican, near Waldo, was renewing acquaintances in the city yesterday. He makes his headquarters at Waldo, where he has large property interests.

For lease or on shares, a fine trucking plant under a perfect system of irrigation; pumping station, docks and buildings; three miles of Jacksonville, on rock road. Write or see Dr. Armstrong, West Building, Jacksonville.

W. J. Trammel, who operates a sawmill at Trenton, was among the visitors to the city yesterday. He says that he is now making preparations to start up his ginny and expects to be in operation by the 20th inst.

Mrs. J. L. Kelley has gone to Asheville, N. C., where she will spend next several weeks on a pleasure trip. She was accompanied by her son, A. T. Kelley of Rochelle, who will visit several places in that State before his return home.

H. A. Pickett, Jr., who has been attending school in Atlanta, was in the city from his home at Newberry yesterday. He expects to leave this fall for Baltimore and will finish his education in the John Hopkins Institute of that city.

W. O. Tison, having contracted the fish fever, departed yesterday for his farm on Santa Fe Lake, where he will spend the next few days angling for the funny tribe. He says he knows they are there, but is uncertain as to whether they will bite.

Superintendent Miller is still busy cutting off the delinquent water consumers, and while his force is not near as large as it was on Monday, they are kept busy cutting out and turning others on. It will take him several days to get over the entire city.

Mrs. Gussie Edelstein and children will make their departure today via the Clyde Line for New York City. They will spend the next two months in the great metropolis as the guests of B. Edelstein, who formerly resided here and who is well known in this section.

Mrs. H. E. Patton of Jacksonville, who has been visiting her parents in

A WARNING

I have learned that certain persons are representing themselves as my agents, and taking orders for large pictures, claiming I will finish them. In some cases the pictures given them have been lost—pictures of dear ones which cannot be replaced. I have no agents, never did, and never will. I deal directly with my patrons for all work. I cannot afford to pay an agent out of the prices I charge for the high-grade work I do. Bring your enlarging to me and you are not only insured against loss of the original, but will have a guarantee of a faithful likeness and an artistic finish.

SMITH'S STUDIO,

Gainesville, — — — — Florida.

this city, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Scarborough, for the past several days, returned to her home yesterday. She was accompanied by M. M. Scarborough, who will be absent in the State metropolis for several weeks.

J. L. Chesser departed yesterday for Atlanta, where he will be absent for the next few days. He goes for the purpose of purchasing a supply of bicycles and bicycle sundries, and will open up a bicycle business in connection with his other business. He will also put in a full line of tools and be prepared to do all kinds of repairing.

Capt. James A. Tucker of Rochelle, who recently purchased a building lot in Ocala and will soon begin the erection of a building thereon, has gone back to his old home to make final preparations for his removal here. Since his coming to Ocala he has made many friends and will become quite an acquisition to our community.—Ocala Banner.

Notice.

The Alachua county division of the F. E. and C. U. of A. will meet on Thursday, 23rd inst., at Perseverance school house, about two miles west of Alachua.

All Locals are requested to send in full delegations, as this will be a very important meeting.

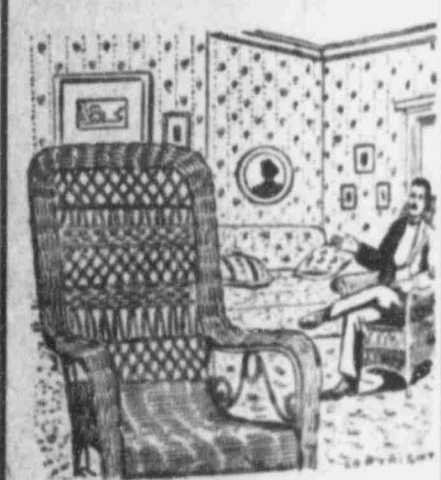

J. W. MAY,
County President.

Will Preach, Special Sermon.

On next Sunday morning Rev. S. B. Rogers of the First Baptist church will deliver a special sermon to the teachers and scholars now attending the Normal in this city. While the sermon will be especially prepared for this body, it is hoped that a large attendance from the outside church goers will be present.

WANTED.

WANTED—Fifty wood-choppers. Apply Wilcox Turpentine Co., Wilcox, Florida.

Good For Years of Wear and Comfort

The Fine Furniture carried by us is on record as the "satisfaction kind." Next to an easy bed what's more comfortable than a chair which fits your form? We have a complete line of Easy Chairs, Morris Chairs, Lounges, Divans, etc. Comfort for you, too, in our prices. Mail orders filled. We pay freight on all orders over $25. Young couples, get busy—it will pay you.

Gainesville Furniture Co.
GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA.